

Curriculum Vitae (short version)

Prof. Dr. Reinhold Schnabel

Current position

Professor of Economics (Public Finance), Department of Economics and Business Administration, University Duisburg-Essen

Research

Labor market and social security
public pensions and health care, incentive effects of taxation and transfer systems

Academic and Professional Career

Since 2013	Board of the Family Report, State of NRW
2010 – 2013	Program group „Evaluation of family transfers“, BMFSFJ (Bundesministerium für Familie Senioren, Frauen und Jugend) and Ministry of Finance (BMF)
2006 - 2009	Agendagruppe des Kompetenzzentrums für Familienleistungen am Bundesministerium für Familie, Senioren, Frauen und Jugend (BMFSFJ)
2005 - 2009	Guest researcher at the Max-Planck-Institut for Collective Goods, Bonn
Since 2004	Board of Management, Ruhr Graduate School of Economics, Essen
2002-2014	Research Professor at the Centre of European Economic Research (ZEW), Mannheim, Labor Market and Social Security
1999	Habilitation, July 1999, venia legendi in Economics and Econometrics, University of Mannheim Post Doctoral Assistant (C1) at the chair of Macroeconomics and Economic Policy (Prof. Axel Börsch-Supan, Ph.D.)
1993	Dissertation (Dr. rer. pol.), summa cum laude , Johann Wolfgang Goethe-University, Frankfurt / Main
1989 – 1992	Research Assistant at SFB 3 and Chair for Empirical Economics (Professor Reinhard Hujer), Johann Wolfgang Goethe-University, Frankfurt / Main
1984 – 1988	Studies in Economics, Johann Wolfgang Goethe-University, Frankfurt / Main, Diploma (sehr gut)

Visiting Research Fellowships

September 2004 – March 2005	National Bureau of Economic Research, Cambridge, Mass., Research Scholar (Sponsor Prof. David Wise)
1996 (spring term)	University of California at Berkeley, Department of Economics, USA, Visiting Research Scholar (Sponsor Prof. McFadden)
1991 (fall term)	Stanford University, Department of Economics, USA, Visiting Research Scholar, 10/1991 – 11/1991 (Sponsor Prof. MaCurdy).

Current funded projects

„Experimental Evaluation of Financial Incentives and Retirement Decisions“, DFG

Essen, May 2015